sympathy of the country. His wealth at one time large, was believed to have been swallowed up in these companie Much American money was lost in the failure of the Wright companies. There was a great outery against the atiltude of the authorities in not prose cuting Whittaker Wright and his fel-low directors of the London and Globe company, and in January last a petition was circulated on the London stock exchange signed by many influential men, demanding the prosecution of Wright, as it was considered that the credit of the city and of the London stock exchange demanded. London stock exchange demanded thorough investigation. A fund of $25, 00 was raised to initiate the proceed ings against Wright.

Arnold White ,the author, at a meet ing, said the reason the prosecution was not undertaken by the government was that the directors of the London and Globe were sheltering themselves behind members of the royal family. He added that he understood a royal duke had invested his money in the concern, and he believed that "certain hangers-on at court" were using the name of the king and others for the purpose of hiding their own deeds Other speakers at this meeting declared that the stockholders of the London and Globe company were victims of the "terrible, heartless and gigantic swind

The same afternoon the Irish Nation-alist Swift McNell select the home alist, Swift McNeill, asked the home secretary in the house of commons what steps were being taken to preven Wright's escaping from justice, and later the home secretary announced that the government intended to bring

WRIGHT'S WIFE.

London, March 15.-Wright's wife is living in comparative seclusion near Godalming. When seen this evening she reiterated her belief that he was on the way to Egypt for the sake of his health, the doctors having declared that a rest was imperative. His one desire, she said, has been to do something for the unfortunate share-holders and the worry told severely on his health. He had remarked that if there ever was any trouble he must re-cover his strength to enable him to fearlessly meet the charges brought against him. She had heard from aim at Paris, but he did not mention is movements.

When told that her husband had been arrested in New York, she said she supposed that he must have met friends in Paris, who persuaded him to change his way and go to New York, perhaps on his way to the mines in British Columbia. Asked whether her hus-band was an American, Mrs. Wright replied: "I do not know. I am an American. We were married in Amer-He has always been thoroughly ish, much to my disgust. Irish Demonstrations in England.

London, March 15.-Several Irish members of parliament addressed demenstrations at Manchester, Birming ham, Liverpool and Dundee on the better prospects of an Irish land settle ment. John Redmond, speaking at Liverpool, said the government's Irish land purchase bill offered great hopes of a settlement. The policy of coercion, he added, has changed to a policy of con-ciliation, but in view of past disappointments the Irish party was not too sanguine. If it was worth while to spend millions of pounds on the acquisition of two Dutch republics, it was much more important to spend a few hundred thousand pounds in conciliating Ireland.

Occasion Was a Sudden Squall in Havana Harbor-British Ships Did Not Rise to Emergency.

Havana, March 15 .-- While the secre tary of the navy, Mr. Moody, and his party, were making a visit on shore this afternoon, a squall of tremendous violence swept over the harbor. It became as dark as night and the wind and the downpour were terrific.

Commander Stoney of the Dolphin, realizing the peril to the small boats in the harbor, called for volunteer rescuers. The entire crew of the Dolphin responded. Boats were instantly manned and sent out. The launch re-turned with four half-drowned Cubans and the captain's gig. The Cubans were lifted aboard apparently lifeless. out were later resuscitated.

The courage and heroic action on the part of the Americans were es-pecially commanded as the British ships did not rise to the emergence although one of the capsized boar was much nearer to the Ariadne than Secy. Moody tomorrow will sum non the Dolphin's crew and commend them for their presence of mind. Up to tonight, it is known that five men, all Cubans, were drowned by the apsizing of boats during the squall.

The arrival of the British squadron, onsisting of the warships Ariadne, Indefatigable, Retribution, Tribune, Fan-tone and Columbine this morning from Kingston, Jamaica, gave the harbor anaval aspect. The morning was occupied with exchanges of salutes and calls. The Dolphin saluted Vice-Admiral Douglas with fifteen guns. Vice-Admiral Douglas and the commanders of the British warships proceeded to the Dolphin and paid their respects to Mr. Mrody. The secretary returned the visit at once. Thirty guns were fired by the Dolphin in honor of a call on Mr. Moody by Gen. Rodriguez, the com-mander of the Cuban army.

Secy. Moody and party dined today with Minister Squiers. They will pay visits to President Palma and the members of the cabinet tomorrow. On Tuesday they will proceed to Bahia Hondo and on returning to Havana will go to Santiago by rail and return to the Dolphin. They will look over the site for the naval station and general situation at Guantanamo.
